

CAREERS IN CONSTRUCTION DAY

AGC REACHES OUT TO STUDENTS: More than 500 high school and middle school students were present at the Oct. 9 Vallejo Construction Career Awareness Day hosted by AGC member Kiewit Pacific Co. Kiewit Pacific, along with the AGC Education Foundation, put on the event at the Kiewit Yard in Vallejo along the water front, where students were encouraged to consider the rewarding career paths available in the construction industry. Also present at the event were Caltrans Director Randy Iwasaki, and Mayor of Vallejo Osby Davis. This was the first career day in the San Francisco Bay Area in recent years and it was a great success. AGC member sponsors included C.C. Myers, Inc., Flatiron West, Inc., Foundation Constructors, and Shimmick Construction. And a special thanks to Caltrans and the Federal Highway Administration. For more information, please contact Kevin Rowe at (925) 827-2422.

A student interviews Chris Villa of Kiewit Pacific Co. about the event.

Gary Janco of C.C. Myers, Inc. talks to two event participants.
