

Associated General Contractors of California

DUES PROVISIONS

The Associated General Contractors of California (AGC) is made up of Contractor, Specialty Contractor, Associate and Apprenticeship Training Program members. It is a member organization drawing its strength from the collective association of the strongest builders in California.

Dues are assessed based on the member category and volume of construction work performed in California as follows:

CONTRACTOR MEMBER DUES

| Volume | Amount |
|-----------------------------------|---------------|
| $250,000,000+ | $25,000.00 |
| $100,000,000-$249,999,999 | $22,500.00 |
| $50,000,000-$99,999,999 | $17,500.00 |
| $25,000,000-$49,999,999 | $12,500.00 |
| $10,000,000-$24,999,999 | $7,500.00 |
| $5,000,000-$9,999,999 | $5,000.00 |
| $2,000,000-$4,999,999 | $2,500.00 |
| Under $2,000,000 | $1,500.00 |

Contractor Membership is limited to any construction firm licensed to perform construction in California with an A, B, C-8, C-12, C-21, or C-42 license as well as Construction Management Firms. Contractor dues are based on the annual volume for the previous year of construction billed for all types of contracts including bid, negotiated, public or private. Volume does not include San Diego County or work outside of California. Construction Management firms dues are assessed by the previous years revenue.

SPECIALTY CONTRACTOR MEMBER DUES
